PD Options Firing Up

As expected now that most workforces are back to full strength, PD opportunities are coming in fast. In particular, some excellent conferences and other sessions highly relevant to Family Law Pathways Members are included below.

The media and CFCA are also back in full swing with a selection of the latest articles and resources below.

Membership :

You all will also have noted in earlier emails to Registered Members that the password has had its annual update for our Members Section. Registered members will also be able to access the same section shortly on the new National Pathways Website – representing all 33 networks. So great time to encourage colleagues to get “two for one” by joining.

If you are on the old general mailing lists please register fully as per the recent email to you so you get full membership benefits. As it says – 2 minutes to do, years of benefit.

Caring for our frontline child protection workforce

Frontline child protection work is highly stressful, emotionally taxing and, at times, can result in secondary trauma. This paper offers guidance to the management of child protection and related services by drawing on occupational health literature.

What is community development?

This resource sheet provides an overview of community development for service providers and practitioners.

Development Opportunities... for 2017...

AFCC - The Annual Chapter Conference

The Chapter's Fourth annual conference will take place on 17, 18 and 19 August 2017 in Melbourne at Crown Conference Centre. The theme is 'Decisions! Decisions! Decisions!' and we have designed a rich and varied program with local, national and international presenters.

Registration will open soon with discount rates for accommodation at Crown Metropol and Crown Towers.

AFCC - Come and join the Think Tank – Innovations in Family Law

This year's full day workshop and think tank 'Innovations in Family Law' will be held on 24 March 2017 at Melbourne University Hawthorn, Auburn Rd Hawthorn. New ideas, problem-solving and discussion around different ways to look at roadblocks in family law will be explored.

- Venue: Melbourne University Auburn Rd Hawthorn
- Room: The cinema – easy to find and there will be signs up
- Time: 9.30 am to 4.30 pm
- Cost: $50 cash on the day – this covers the venue, morning tea, afternoon tea and lunch (but let us know if you have any dietary requirements – to Sophie at drneoh@bigpond.com)
- RSVP: drneoh@bigpond.com to reserve your place. Numbers are limited

Yassenik Graham Collaboration
